Some Homework Ideas

There are lots of sports tournaments this summer. Try playing a new sport in your garden with your family.

Summer is here. Draw a poster to remind family members how to keep safe in the sun.

Design the best way to play with water. Slides? Pools? Buckets? Hosepipes? Draw a map of your ideas.

What have you enjoyed learning about most this year?
What are you excited to learn about next year?
Ask a grown up to film your thoughts and send them in through Dojo.

Make a delicious summer salad to eat with your family. Try to use at least 4 different vegetables.
Always chop and peel safely, with adult supervision
